

REVISION REQUEST

For Change in Student Income – 2022-2023

Financial aid awards are based, in part, on resources reported on the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) which requires tax data from two years prior - e.g. 2020 tax return data for the 2022-23 academic year. If there has been or will be a substantial change to your actual or projected income compared to base year data provided on the FAFSA, you may petition the financial aid office to consider more recent figures reported on this form.
